

The Standards Over Time

Standards.

A noun.

A word powerful enough to change someone.

For the better.

Or the Worse.

Beauty Standards.

Definitely for the worse.

They change over time.

Nobody will ever fit them.

Always changing.

At first

The hourglass shape was perfect.

A small waist and wide hips.

Then it changed

A tall slender being

Long and slim legs

It changed once more

Silky blonde hair

A bleached banana yellow

Then it changed once again

Sapphire blue eyes

You guessed it

Change

Pearly White Teeth

Straight like a ruler

Impossible to fit them all

The Standards Over Time.
