

Bella asked her older sister, Bea, whether or not Mom would let her go to her friend's house.

And she didn't know.

So Bea said, "Figure it out"

Bella asked Mom if she could.

Later that day, Bella thought she would try again.

"Can I, Mom? Can I?"

"Yes. But be polite."

Bella went to her friend's house.

And her friend's mother asked if she would like some lemonade.
