

My name is Indiana.

I am Just A Person.

Who wants to win this contest.

Who loves books, stories, dragons, raspberries, family, and so much more.

Who is sitting on her couch.

Who wants hope

That she too

Can create something worth it

For everyone.

And I'm worried.

And I don't know what will happen next.

And and and

I could go on forever.

And I know I'm selfish, because I only want it for myself.

But I do want it.

And I hope you do, too.
