

DARK ALLEYWAYS

You are walking down a dark alley way to get home and a big black creature jumps right in front of you. Not knowing how to react you run backward, back out of the alley way. The big thing follows you. When you are finally out of the alley way, you see that it has stopped at the line of light. You are confused. “Why did it stop? I thought it was just one of my friends trying to scare me...” you think. Now you are very confused. The big thing just is staring at you. You are still a little scared. You finally decide to run home.
